

About Daniel Negreanu

Daniel Negreanu, born in Toronto on July 26, 1974 became world famous as a professional poker player who have bagged several world records. This Canadian player has four World Series of bracelets and two Poker Tour championships in his name.

Daniel started playing in the casinos at a very earlier age. He dropped his high school to play in the charity casinos of his area and started looking for poker games played illegal in his city. He gave complete concentration to build up a bankroll after which at the age of 21, he left to Las Vegas. There he started his hard work for becoming a professional poker player to fulfill his dream.

In the year of 1997, he was able to win the World Poker Finals's two events. This earned him $55,064 and a title of the best all round player of the tournament. In the 1998 world series of Poker, we won at the Pot Limit Hold'em and got the title as the youngest WSOP bracelet. This was a history record he could enjoy till 2004.

The successive years marked his success as the most successful professional poker player of various tournaments. He won two events of World Poker Tour and three World Series bracelets. He appeared at 12 final tables. In the year 2004, he was given the title of the World Series of Poker Player. In 2005, he was the World Tour player.

Wynn Las Vegas appointed him as their Ambassador for Poker play in the poker rooms. In his official site, he started his online card room for poker in the month of December in 2005. In his website Full Contact Poker, he published his blogs and forums on poker games.

In the Bellagio Casino of Las Vegas, he was a regular player for continuous years. He is well known for the challenges and goals he set for his growth in the career. This helped him gain a name outside the poker room, for instance in the golf course as well. He is known as an outspoken guy who regularly updates his forums on poker games and results.

He is considered as a player who could very well read his opponents and this is considered to be the main reason for his success at the tables. He himself declares that he could read the hands going to be moved by his opponents and he could make out the capability with which his opponents could play a hand.

He has also been a player for various TV shows. He even released a book named Power Hold'em Strategy. His section explains the strategy of winning small ball poker. He is also featured in the video game released in 2006 for poker games.

He has written articles for various magazines and has submitted various tutorials on web for teaching poker in the online schools. He had also given classes to various celebrities on poker games. Apart from Poker games, he publishes blogs and posts on various aspects of life including politics and everything else in the world. There he expresses his thoughts and feeling about all these areas of life.
